

Call for Papers

The 12th International Conference on Database Systems for Advanced Applications (DASFAA 2007)

April 9-12, 2007

Ambassador Hotel, Bangkok, Thailand

<http://www.dasfaa07.ait.ac.th>

Aims of the Conference

As an annual international conference in Pacific Asia region, DASFAA 2007 is an international forum for academic exchanges and technical discussions among researchers, developers and users of databases from academia, business and industry. The conference will promote research and development activities in database field among participants and their institutions from Pacific Asia and the world as well.

Areas of Interests

Original papers on both database theory and practice are solicited. The areas of interests include, but are not limited to the following:

Query Language and Query Optimization	Multimedia Databases
Multidatabases and Federated Databases	Digital Libraries
Security and Integrity Maintenance	Mobile Databases
Data Mining and Knowledge Discovery	User Interfaces
Statistical and Scientific Databases	Temporal and Spatial Databases
Parallel and Distributed Databases	Active Databases
Data Warehouses	Data Streams
Information Retrieval with Databases Systems	P2P and Grid-Based Data Management
Workflow Management	Sensor Data Managing
E-commerce Data Processing	XML Databases
Internet and the WWW Data Management
New Applications

Important Dates

September 8, 2006	Submission of paper abstracts
September 15, 2006	Submission of full papers and tutorial proposals
November 30, 2006	Notification of paper acceptance
December 10, 2006	Submission of panel/workshop proposals
December 20, 2006	Notification of panel/workshop acceptance
December 30, 2006	Camera-ready copy due date
April 9-12, 2007	Conference in Bangkok, Thailand

Submissions

Papers: Authors are strongly encouraged to submit regular or industrial track papers reporting original works which, at the time of submission, are not under review or have not been published or accepted for publication in a journal or another conference. A paper must be written in English and must be no longer than 12 pages, following Springer-Verlag's LNCS manuscript guidelines, available at <http://www.springer.de/comp/lncs/authors.html>. Only electronic submission (PostScript or PDF format) is accepted, and the submission must be made by September 15, 2006. Based on the recommendations from reviewers, accepted papers will be classified into: full papers, short papers and posters.

Proposals for Tutorials/Panels/Workshops: Proposals should include, in English, a half-page description and outline; names, affiliations, and biographical sketches of the speakers/organizers. Submissions should be sent to the respective chairs (tutorials by September 15, 2006, and panels and workshops by December 10, 2006).

Proceedings

The conference proceedings are planned to be published by Springer-Verlag in the Lecture Notes in Computer Science (LNCS) series (pending approval).
